Dear NURBEK ISMAILOV:

Re-evaluate Claim-14139859

We previously DENIED your benefits based on the information we had at that time. We got new information. This decision replaces the earlier one.

We re-evaluated your unemployment benefits starting Sep 8 2019. This update was due to a change in at least one of the items below:

- Determination of a new issue.
- Redetermination of an existing issue.
- Determination or redetermination of a monetary decision.
- An update to your weekly claim deductions.
- Processing of an appeal decision.

If we need to consider other questions about your claim, we'll send you separate letters to address each issue.

In addition to unemployment benefits, you may have received benefits called Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC).

If you were denied a full week of unemployment benefits for a week when you received FPUC, you must pay it back. We will send you a separate statement that includes the amount of FPUC funds you must repay. These funds are not in the summary table at the end of this letter.

The law that applies is Public Law 116-136.

Lost Wages Assistance (LWA) provided an additional $300 each week claimed between Jul 26 and Sep 5 2020. If this decision denies benefits in these weeks and you received LWA, you must repay the LWA payments. We cannot waive that repayment.

The LWA payments are not included in the summary table at the end of this letter.

You can appeal this decision if you disagree with it.

Read the Handbook for Unemployed Workers at esd.wa.gov to find everything you need to know about benefits, including training for a new career.

We sent a copy of this letter to the people or businesses listed below. They can appeal the decision, too. We'll notify you if they do.
